Foreign Intelligence.

LONDON, November 6.

The French commiſſary of priſoners is now at Portcheſter caſtle, near Portſmouth, ſelecting the French ſeamen who are to be ſurrendered in conſequence of the capitulation of Shagenbrug. His choice appears to be governed by the individual claims, merits and ability of the priſoners, with only one preference, where their pretenſions are concurrent in favor of thoſe taken by Lord Howe on the firſt of June 1794.

The following ſtatement of the French naval force, was lately given in the Council of Five Hundred by Boulay Paty:

The Republic poſſeſſes at ſea in the different ports of its dominions, 48 ſhips of the line, 50 frigates, 42corvettes, 14 brigs, 10 luggers, 16 cutters, 12 aviſos, 6 demi xebecs, 11 gallies, 14 ſtore ſhips, 25 gun boats, 135 gun pinnaces, and 177 flat bottomed boats, conſtructed for the deſcent on England. Beſides theſe, there are on the ſtocks 13 ſhips of the line, 8 of which are nearly ready for launching; 12 frigates, 10 of which are in the ſame ſtate of forwardneſs; and 4 corvettes, and 2 gallies, which will alſo be ready for ſea in a very ſhort period.

The Paris papers, treating of the Breſt armament, ſay "The fleet is charged with an expedition of the greateſt importance, calculated to ſtrike a deadly blow againſt England."

The Directory, on the 14th October, laid an embargo on all neutral veſſels in the ports of France.

L'Ami des Lois quotes a letter relating the arrival at Ferjus, of 50 ſail, having on board the remainder of the army of Buonaparte.

The Chouans took 6 pieces of cannon, 1509 muſkets and fowling pieces, 200 horſes, &c. from Mons. They are ſo well trained that 3000 men will aſſemble in an inſtant, and diſperſe with equal expedition.

The French Generals Muller, and Baraguay d'Hilliers have declared the neutrality of the city of Frankfort null.

Koſciuſko is at Paris, aſſiſting the Directory in organizing the new Poliſh corps directed by the Councils.

The Margrave of Baden has acceded to the wiſhes of his ſubjects, to be permitted to arm en maſſe to reſiſt the plunder of the French.

November 9.

By a late regulation adopted in the Council of Five Hundred, France is to have four grand ports, viz' Breſt, Rochefort, Toulon and L'Orient; and ſix ſecond ry ones, viz. Antwerp, Dunkirk, Cherbourg, Havre, Nantes and Bourdeaux.

It is ſaid that Louis XVIII. will ſoon return to Germany.

The Elector of Saxony has voluntarily aſſiſted the merchants of Leipzig with one million of florins from his private purſe, to prevent embarraſſments in trade. This is an act worthy of a ſovereign

It is his majeſty's ſhip Naſſau, of 64 guns and not the Kent, that has been unfortunately loſt. She was driven by a ſtrong current on a ſand bank near the Texel iſland, in the gale on Friday ſe'nnight.

From the aſſiſtance that was afforded her there was reaſon to hope that the whole of the crew would have been ſaved; but unfortunately ſome of the ſeamen threw off all regard to diſcipline, and became intent on plunder, by which means two officers and 42 men periſhed. Theſe two officers were the captain of marines and the purſer.—All the other officers and men were happily ſaved.

November 15.

We proceed to the contents of the Paris papers. The telegraphic diſpatch from Dunkirk is confirmed. Klenau has been driven from the Riviere, with the loſs of the rear guard, who were forced to lay down their arms. Coni has alſo been relieved, and Ceva is beſieged.

A notice was ſent this day to the merchants concerned in the trade to Holland, that the blockade of the ports of Holland would be immediately taken off, and the trade opened again.

Extraordinary as was the intelligence contained in the telegraphic diſpatches inſerted in yeſterday's Courier, we did not attempt to throw diſcredit upon it. The experience of the French revolution has taught us not raſhly to diſbelieve a thing becauſe we were not prepared to expect it; and though we pointed out ſome difference between the two diſpatches, we gave it as our opinion that another revolution had really taken place. That the Paris papers did not prepare us for ſuch an event, that they contained nothing which ſeemed to ſhew that an important change was about to take place did not ſurpriſe us. To have carried ſuch a project into execution it was eſſentially neceſſary that it ſhould be concealed with the utmoſt care.

There were ſome perſons who diſbelieved the intelligence, becauſe they recollected that Barras had been the friend and patron of Buonaparte; but the Egyptian expedition is ſtated to have alienated Buonaparte from his former friend. Certain it is that no remains of their ancient intimacy were diſcovered when the former returned to Europe. On the day the Auſtro Ruſſian colours were preſented to the Directory, Barras gave a grand dinner to the foreign miniſters and to the French Generals in Paris. Buonaparte neither attended the preſentation of the colours nor the dinner. It might accord with the views of the miniſterialiſts when the conqueror of Italy returned ſo ſuddenly to France, to repreſent him as having baſely deſerted his army. We thought however, and we hinted that he had returned for a purpoſe of the greateſt importance. That the telegraphic intelligence therefore is true we have no doubt. Government have, it is underſtood received a confirmation of it. The poſt of the 8th inſtant, from Paris to Gravelines, arrived at the uſual time. The poſts of the 9th and 10th had not arrived when the cartel which reached Dover the day before yeſterday ſailed. The telegraph from Paris to Dunkirk announces the important intelligence which was conveyed in manuſcript to Gravelines before the cartel ſailed on Wedneſday. A revolution then has undoubtedly taken place,—and we believe a more important and eventful one than any that has occurred.

November 16.

A Cabinet Council, at which all the miniſters aſſiſted, was held this day at noon, at Lord Grenville's office. It was ſuppoſed to be upon the important news received from France. The Council remained ſitting when this paper was put to preſs. Courier.

Price of Stocks this day at one o'clock ——3 per cent Con. 62—Iriſh 5 per cent ſhut—Omnium 8 3-4.

STRASBURGH, October 31.

The movements of the armies of Suwarrow and of the Archduke claim all the attention of our Generals. Suwarrow has entirely quitted the Griſons, and is gone to Coire. His head quarters are at Lindau. The defence of the Griſons is entruſted to the Auſtrian army, commanded by lieut. gen. Linken, which conſiſts of about 800 men. It will be reinforced by a corps of the Auſtrian army from Italy under the command of gen. Klim. Suwarrow has formed a junction with the army of Korſakow, who has entirely quitted the environs of Schaffhauſen, ſo that Suwarrow now commands about 30,000 Ruſſians on the lake of Conſtance. The remains of the army of Conde keep up the communication between the army of the Archduke and the corps of Nauendorf and Linken. The head quarters of the archduke is at Donaueſchingen. He ſays that he cannot ſend reinforcements to the Neckar, and has ordered the generals under his command to act ſtrictly upon the defenſive, and to retreat towards the interior of Suabia as ſoon as the French army advance to Raſtadt and Stutgard.—The train of artillery of this latter corps of the army and the magazines are already teansferred to upper Suabia. It is ſaid that the troops before Kehl and Old Briſac have received an order to fall back at the ſhorteſt notice.

ARMY OF THE DANUBE.

Head quarters at Zurich, November 3.

Maſſena, Commander in Chief, to the Miniſter of War.

"Citizen Miniſter,

"I had given orders to gen. Soult to drive in concert with the diviſion under the command of gen. Loiſon, all the enemy who might remain on the left bank of the Rhine.

"Gen. Loiſon left Diſſentis with the 38th demi-brigade, and was joined at Fleims by the 1ſt battalion of the 44th, arrived from Elm and led by the adjutant Compere. Gen. Loiſon marched to Treins, attacked the enemy there, and forced them to retreat to Tamins, while gen. Mortier with two battalions of the 25th light and a detachment of the 10th regiment of horſe chaſſeurs, attacked ſuch of the enemy as remained behind Vettes, deſcending by the Konkels They oppoſed a vain reſiſtance; the brave 25th according to cuſtom repulſed them with the bayonets, and forced them to abandon the frontiers which they occupied. Gen Mortier carried into execution a charge with his cavalry by which he obtained 200 priſoners.

"The enemy, ſenſible of the importance of defending Tamius, aſſembled all their forces at the defile of Konkels. Theſe forces conſiſted of four battalions. He was anxious at any price to prevent them from penetrating; but a charge of the 25th made at a very critical moment, occaſioned the loſs of all their poſitions, and two or three pounders; three hundred priſoners have remained in our poſſeſſion. The enemy in the greateſt diſorder recroſſed the Rhine, burning the bridges of Reichenau and Feldſberg with ſuch combuſtible matter as they had prepared. The junction of the troops of gen. Loiſon and Mortier took place at that ſpot.

"The reſult of the whole of theſe operations is the total expulſion of the enemy's troops who were on the left bank of the Rhine in the Griſons, the capture of two cannon and 500 priſoners, among whom were nine officers, and many killed and wounded. On our part we had only three killed and ten wounded. The Generals beſtow the higheſt praiſe on their troops. All of them did their duty in the moſt perfect manner.

"Health and fraternity,
(Signed) MASSENA."

Note. It was with the Auſtrians we had to do.

COUNCIL OF FIVE HUNDRED.

Sitting of November 7.

The Preſident read the following Meſſage:

"The Executive Directory has received a Telegraphic Diſpatch from Straſburgh, which it tranſmits to you with great ſatisfaction.—It is conceived in the following words.

"On the 31ſt of October the army of the Rhine carried all the poſts of the enemy on the Neckar. Eight hundred men were made priſoners. The number of killed and wounded is conſiderable. A great quantity of beſieging Artillery, of immenſe Magazines, and the city of Stutgard are in our power."

CORK, November 7.

The London Papers of Wedneſday and Thurſday, which have reached us ſince our laſt, are filled with the contents of Paris Papers, which had been received down to the 28th ult. The fact of the greateſt importance, which has tranſpired through the medium of theſe papers, is the occupation of Civita Vecchia by the gallant capt. Trowbridge, and of Rome by the Neapolitan general Broudcard, in conſequence of a convention, by which the French garriſons were permitted to return to France: that of Civita Vecchia is already arrived at Marſeilles. Genoa was ſtill in poſſeſſion of the French on the 9th ult. but they were reduced to the laſt extremity by famine; had quarreled with their own creatures the conſtituted authorities of the Ligurian ſtate; had ſent off all their heavy artillery for Nice; and removed their head quarters from the Riviera towards Coni. Letters from this latter place ſtate reports of a general action having happened; but they do not preſume to give the reſult; except by vaguely ſaying that Championet had the advantage. Thurgau, however, whom our readers will recollect was ſome time ago driven by the Auſtrians over the Paſs of the Sempion, appears to have penetrated over that Paſs again, and re-taken Domo d'Oſſola. Gen. Melas ſeems to have gained a conſiderable advantage on this ſide of Coni on the 7th ult.

On the Rhine, the French paſſed that river at Mentz, on the 11th ult. and at Oppenheim and Frankenthal on the 13th.—One of theſe corps advanced along the Mein, and others on the Neckar, poſſeſſing themſelves of Manheim, and Heilderburg, on the 16th and 17th. Theſe corps being chiefly compoſed of cavalry, and light infantry, is a proof, that they mean only to raiſe contributions; and their predatory excurſions will, doubtleſs, ſoon be arreſted by the Auſtrians, and the numerous armed peaſants.

Our readers will ſee by the Falmouth letter that part of the French fleet are at ſea; and that there is a high probability of our grand fleet falling in with the whole.

November 9.

The violent gales which have blown lately in the channel from the ſouth-weſt having prevented the arrival of the mails now due, the Iriſh public are ſtill under a conſiderable degree of uncertainty reſpecting the ſeven line of battle ſhips which are ſaid to have left Breſt, and whoſe deſtination might poſſibly have been for this country. There not, however, appears to be any foundation for ſerious alarm. We have ſhewn the directory we are perfectly well able to invade them. Had neither the ſtormy weather prevented our landing, when we approached the coaſt of Holland, nor the continued rains obſtructed our march, when we did land, Amſterdam, and perhaps the entire of Holland, would have now been occupied by our armies. But that the French, who durſt not ſtir out of Breſt while our armaments covered the ſeas, and offered them ſo excellent an opportunity of annoying us, ſhould now think of invading us, when our attention is entirely turned towards ſelf-defence, is by no means a rational ſuppoſition. In putting to ſea, they may indeed have harbored the hope of falling in with ſome of our tranſports returning with troops from Holland, or in their voyage to Guernſey and Jerſey; but the ſuperior vigilance of our different fleets will be ſufficient, we truſt, to defeat this and every other maritime plan which our inveterate enemies can form againſt the ſuper-eminent naval power of Grtat Britain.

Several cargoes of wheat from Dantzick, have arrived in Dublin.

Sugar is falling daily, as we find the average price in the London Gazette to be only 61, which is but a fraction more than 6 1-2d the pound.

A charity ſermon was lately preached in Edinburg, the profits of which are to be appropriated in aſſiſting to defray the expence of printing the bible in the Bengal language and character.

Some time ago a certain lord gave a grand gala to the members of the volunteer corps in the neighbourhood, all of whom attended in full uniform.—Among others, his Lordſhip's taylor was preſent, and the hoſt came up to him ſaying, "My dear Sir, how d'ye do?—I beg your pardon, I forget your name, but I perfectly recollect ſeeing you ſomewhere before."—The Taylor was a little confounded by this particular notice, and as the beſt way of making himſelf remembered, whiſpered, "I made your breeches." The Noble Lord thinking that the Taylor had informed him of his name, turned round and took him by the hand, exclaiming—"Major Bridges, I am happy to ſee you."

COMMUNICATION
From the Rev. Doctor MARTIN MILDMAY.

DACTYLIC,
After the manner of Southey,
By Mr. L——n, on the burning of his Father's House.

Weary and way-sore, juſt eleven years old,
As I lay toſſing, on truckle-bed of ſtraw,
Suddenly a blue flame gleam'd on my eye balls:
The houſe was on fire.

By this flame's light, at juſt one o'clock at night
I in my ſhirt-tail, ſitting on a fence-rail,
Daddy Jeff's far, fam'd, lying declaration of Independence, read.

Juſt ſo Charley Fox, Patriot whom I ape,
Whilſt lord Holland's houſe quick to the ground burnt,
Rattled away the dice-box with brother-traitors
(Patriots I call 'em.)

Hence I think I ſee, I've a right to ſpeak free,
And quote aptly Shakeſpeare, when his word
takes here,
For the Nation Great, or Government to clog
Or to ſtop its wheels.

This inference clear is all I wiſh to know:
If by aſſes ſent, juſt but to act the aſs,
Recollect this truth—"act well your part, there all
The honor lies."*

NEW-YORK, January 23.

It is a circumſtance illuſtrative of the diſpoſitions of the Pariſians towards Buonaparte, that at a large feaſt, he was publicly toaſted as the "Union of all Frenchmen."

The recent intelligence from Liſbon ſtates, that the moſt ſerious apprehenſions are entertained by the inhabitants of that city, leſt another earthquake as violent as that which happened in 1755, ſhould take place. Two ſhocks were lately felt there in one night, with the interval only of ten minutes between them. The firſt ſhock cauſed great alarm and diſturbed moſt of the inhabitants.

Mr. Dupont, formerly French Conſul at Charleſton, has arrived at Boſton in the American Eagle, from the Iſle of Rhe.

Extract of a letter from a respectable merchant in Cork to his correspondent in this city, dated November 22.

"I ſuppoſe, ſir, you have heard of Buonaparte's return to France. There is a report here that he has eſtabliſhed a new Directory, and has appointed ſome able perſons to negociate with the Britiſh miniſtry. We may hope his Excellency, in the neekneſs of his heart, may be diſpoſed to look amicably towards America."

Salem, January 17.

The ſchr. Sally, captain Rea, of Danvers, bound to Martinique, was taken by a Guadaloupe privateer of 14 guns, the 19th Nov. and arrived in port the 25th; during which time ſhe met with no armed veſſels but French. From the 20th Nov. to the 5th Dec. there were 13 American veſſels carried into Point Petre, and there were no accounts of a ſingle re-capture. The captain of the privateer came out of Point Petre about the 9th Nov. and told capt. Rea's mate, who was taken on board the privateer, that for ten days before he had been attempting to get out, but was continually beat back by American cruiſers, and that the privateerſmen had began to grow low ſpirited. But for about a fortnight from the 22d Nov. the American cruiſers had diſappeared from the ſtation, and given them an opportunity to get in a great number of prizes, which had given them great ſpirits again. So ignorant was the prizemaſter of navigation, that capt. Rea had an opportunity to get him almoſt into Martinique, and had there been a ſingle American cruiſer on the ſtation, would certainly have been re-taken. The privateer was taken by an Engliſh 40 gun ſhip, two days after taking capt. Rea.

☞ The great inattention ſhewn by a number of Citizens, by ſuffering their Fire Buckets to remain for days and ſometimes for weeks in the ſtreets and alleys, adjacant to where they have been uſed at fires, has induced the Mayor to direct the High Conſtable, at the expiration of four days from the time that a fire ſhall happen in the City, to have collected and removed to the City Hall, the Fire Buckets which he may find in the Streets after that period. The owner will thereby have an opportunity of recovering their Buckets, which perhaps, otherwiſe would have been loſt by their neglect. A number is now at the City Hall

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, January 23.

Mr. Varnum preſented two petitions of the inhabitants of Maſſachuſetts and New-Hampſhire, praying for the eſtabliſhment of a Poſt Road—which were read and referred to the committe on a Poſt office and Poſt Road.

Mr. Platt renewed the motion he made yeſterday, for poſtponing the further conſideration of the bill to repeal in part an act intituled "An act to augment the army of the United States, and for other purpoſes," until the firſt Monday in December next.

Mr. Nicholas called the yeas and nays on the queſtion—which were agreed to be taken.

Mr. Bird then gave his reaſons for voting in favor of the motion; and why he objected to the bill in any ſhape in which it might be brought before the Houſe—and Mr. Hartley and Mr. Harper ſpoke againſt it—when the yeas and nays were taken as follow:

The Houſe then proceeded to the conſideration of the bill as reported, when

Mr. Thatcher moved to ſtrike out the words "French Republic" and inſert "the French Nation." He had no evidence of that country being a Republic—but he had evidence that the government was one of a ſpecies of deſpotiſm unparalelled in the world—and conſidered it as blaſphemy to ſtile it a Republic—Gentlemen who were fond of the expreſſion, might hear it echoed from the Aurora for months and years to come—but he hoped it would not be uſed here.

The motion producing great warmth, Mr. T. altered it ſo as to ſay "with France,"—but finally withdrew it.

Mr. Randolph renewed the motion he made in committee of the whole yeſterday, for adding a new ſection to the bill, relating to ſupernumerary officers—and called the yeas and nays upon it—which were taken without debate in manner following:

The bill was then ordered to be engroſſed and read a third time to-morrow.

A written meſſage was received from the Preſident of the United States, by his Secretary Mr. Shaw, incloſing a report of the Secretary of State, a letter from Mathew Clarkſon, Eſq. and a liſt of the claims adjuſted under the 21ſt article to the treaty of the United States with Spain.

The petitions of Henry Turner, of the State of Vermont; of James M'Clure, and of Michael Houſe, ſoldiers during the Revolutionary war, praying for penſions were read and referred to the committee of Claims.

Mr. Waln preſented a memorial of the inhabitants, Merchants, of the City of Philadelphia, complaining of the operation of the 75th ſection of the act relative to imports and tonnage and the conſtruction put thereon by the collector of that port; and praying for ſuch a modification or definition of it as may induce the ſaid collector to conceive himſelf authoriſed to cancel certain bonds which had been given by them, for ſecurity of drawback on goods exported to New Orleans and Louſiana or Eaſt Florida—Referred to the committee of commerce ond manufactures.

A petition of Samuel Somers, an officer during the revolutionary war, praying confirmation of his title to certain bounty lands granted for his ſervices by the ſtate of Virginia; was read and referred to the committee of Claims.

Mr. Griſwold, from the Committee of reviſal and unfiniſhed buſineſs, to whom was referred the amendments of the Senate to the bill intituled "an act to repeal part of an act intituled an act to provide for mitigating or remitting the forfeitures, penalties, and diſabilities accruing in certain caſes therein mentioned," made a report, which was ordered to be printed, and taken into conſideration to-morrow.

Mr. Macon called up for conſideration the reſolution he had laid on the table for the repeal of the ſecond ſection of the act commonly called the SEDITION LAW—and upon the queſtion will the Houſe agree to the motion, there were ayes 46—noes 34.

Mr. Macon then went into an examination of the conſtitutionality of the Law—and quoted the conſtitution and amendments thereto. &c. to which, Mr. Bayard replied, and concluded with moving the following amendment to the reſolution:—"and the offences therein ſpecified, ſhall remain puniſhable as at common Law; provided, that upon any proſecution it ſhall be lawful for the defendant to give in his defence the truth of the matter charged as a libel."

Mr. Gallatin wiſhed to know if this motion was in order—In his opinion it amounted to a complete ſubſtitute of the propoſition now on the table—and embraced the adoption of a principle of common Law, which he did not underſtand.

Mr. Speaker declaring the motion to be in order, Meſſrs. Gallatin and Smith oppoſed it, and Meſſrs. Bayard and Harper ſpoke in favor of it—when

Mr. Nott ſaid, as it embraced an important ſubject, and required mature conſideration, he would move that it be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe.

Upon the queſtion for commitment there were ayes 41, noes 49.

After ſome debate, Mr. Macon ſaid, that in order to obtain a direct vote upon his reſolution which it had been endeavoured to avoid, he would conſent to incorporate the amendment with it and then call for a diviſion of the queſtion.

The queſtion was then taken on the following part, to wit:

"Reſolved, That the 2d ſection of the act paſſed the 14th July, 1798, intituled "An act in addition to the act entituled An act for the puniſhment of certain crimes againſt the United States, ought to be repealed."

And carried in the affirmative in the manner following, viz.

After ſeveral obſervations as to the point of order in taking a queſtion upon the whole reſolution as amended, Mr. ſpeaker ſubmitted the deciſion to the houſe, and it was agreed to be taken.

Meſſrs. Randolph, Smilie, Eggleſton, Varnum, and Jones, then oppoſed the reſolution as amended, on the ground that it would be a greater evil to eſtabliſh the principles of the common Law, than to repeal the ſedition Law. TO THE PUBLIC.

THE time being fixed on, when the MILITARY LAND (commonly called Knox's) WARRANTS, granted to the United States' army, are to be registered and located,—the subscribers have explored that tract of land on which those warrants are to be laid; with a view, and for the purpose of offering their services as locaters.

We take the liberty of suggesting, "that weare at least as well acquainted with the situation, quality of the soil, &c. of the different townships in the aforesaid tract, as any other person:" this will, perhaps, appear more clearly, by observing, that WILLIAM C. SCHENK assisted in running the Indian boundary line; at which time he considerably traversed that tract: he also assisted in surveying and laying it off into townships, and at other times ranged over it, to gain information. But to obtain a more complete and accurate knowledge, we have lately spent between two and three months, with several assistants, in particularly examining the different townships and quarter townships; by which means we have acquired an accurate knowledge of the whole district.—We now offer our services to the public, as Locaters, with assurances that we will locate every persons warrants intrusted to us to the best advantage, agreeably to their rights of location, which is to be determined according to law. For our services we demand the one equal tenth part, either in lands or warrants, when we locate a full tract, of four thousand acres or more, for one person or firm; the land to be taken in a square, at a corner of the tract; which corner is to be equitably determined before the time of location.—The one equal sixth part, in cash or warrants, when we connect and locate any amount less than four thousand acres. We will be in Philadelphia from December next, until after the time of location, to transact this business. Any person wishing to satisfy himself farther, will please to call on us, by letter, (postage paid) or otherwise; when due attention will be paid, and such vouchers may be seen as we have to offer, which we hope will be satisfactory.

WILLIAM C. SCHENCK.

UPWARDS OF

Eighteen Thousand Persons

Of all ages, within nine months past, have found relief from

HAMILTON'S

Worm destroying Lozenges,

In various complaints arising from worms and from foulness or obstructions in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title so commonly complained of, as operating with a degree of violence, sufficient, not only to kill worms, but sometimes to endanger the patient's life; on the contrary, a peculiar excellence of this remedy is, its being suited to every age and constitution, contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders.

RECENT CURES

Selected from several hundreds, the authenticity of which, any person may ascertain either by letter or personal application—not being performed in Europe, nobody knows where—but at home.

AFFIDAVIT,

MICHAEL DUFFY, residing at No. 47, Wilkes street, Fell's point, in the city of Baltimore, voluntarily maketh oath, that the following statement is just and true.

In the beginning of May last, my three children, a boy of seven, and two girls, the one five and the other three years of age, were taken very ill, nearly at the same time, of a common fever, as I then supposed; but was soon convinced the disorder was caused by worms—they were frequently troubled with convulsion fits and violent startings in their sleep, and with almost continual vomiting and purging, particularly the youngest. I made immediate application to a physician of the first reputation, and his medicines were administered with a confidence of success which only encreased our disappointment. The children grew daily worse, and I was absolutely without hopes of their recovery. The youngest soon appeared almost devoid of animation, and scarcely an inhabitant of this world. In this distressing moment, I was told that Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges had performed many cures in cases equally desperate—I immediately purchased a box, and gave each of them a dose, which in a few hours produced the most desirable effects; the eldest voided a great number of very large worms, and the second thousands of small ones, many of them not a quarter of an inch long—in the youngest they seemed to be consumed, and had the appearance of skins and of slimy matter. I repeated the dose agreeable to the paper of directions, and they all speedily recovered a good state of health which they still enjoy, tho' five months have nearly elapsed since they were on the borders of the grave, and the death of the whole appeared to be inevitable.

Sworn before me this 25th day of September, 1799. J. SMITH.

LETTER

From Mr. John J. Abercromby, Soap and Candle Manufacturer, No. 28, Bridge Street, Baltimore.

TO THE PROPRIETOR OF

Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges.

SIR, October 22, 1799.

I think it my duty to inform you that I have experienced the happiest effects from your Lozenges, having been much afflicted for four years past, with various complaints caused by worms, particularly a constant pain in my stomach and bowels, frequent and severe head ache, with a general lassitude and weakness, during which time I had the best medical advice that could be obtained from the most skilful physicians I could hear of, both American and European, without any alleviation of my disorder.

I should, too probably, have continued without relief, but for your Worm Destroying Lozenges, which brought from me an astonishing quantity of small white worms, about the size of a coarse thread, and in a short time, I found myself perfectly free from all my former complaints, and have enjoyed a good state of health for five months past.

I have constantly recommended your medicine, and shall as long as I live, having, from, my own experience reason to believe it to be an invaluable and unparalell'd remedy. Should any person wish for further information, I will with pleasure satisfy their enquiries on this subject. JOHN J. ABERCROMBY.

SIR, July 10, 1799.

I had been a long time afflicted with a violent and gnawing pain in my stomach, a dull, heavy, continual head ache, with a frequent swimming in my head, accompanied with dimness of sight and sometimes partial blindness, and was rendered incapable of attending my business, thro' loss of strength; sometimes could scarcely eat a morsel for two or three days; when my appetite would suddenly become astonishingly voracious. I firmly believed myself to be in a consumption, which must soon put a period to my life, when happily hearing of several cures performed by Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges in complaints which could not be accounted for, I took two doses, which expelled an incredible number of small sharp pointed worms: in short, I now enjoy as perfect health and strength, as ever I did in my life, and I believe my cure to be entirely effected by means of your medicine.

My brother witnessing its surprizing efficacy was induced to take a dose though in tolerable health, which occasioned him likewise to void a great quantity of worms of the same kind, and thereby probably prevented his experiencing those dreadful disorders with which I was afflicted.

A sincere desire that others in similar circumstance may receive the same benefit, is the reason of my sending you this account.

Yours, very respectfully,
AQUILA GOLDING.

Hartford Road, 2 miles from Baltimore.

OBSERVE.

Those who wish to avail themselves of the benefits proposed by the above remedy, should be particularly careful as they value their money and their health, to guard against the numerous impositions daily attempted on the public, by applying to Mr. Wm. Y. Birch, Stationer, No. 17, South Second Street, who is appointed the only vender in Philadelphia.—Likewise observe that none can be depended on as being genuine, unless the signature of Lee & Co. is pasted on the outside of each.

Purchasers by the dozen or groce will receive a handsome allowance by application to Lee and Co. Market street, Baltimore.

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

From the commencement

Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat tipe, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress, prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

* * The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"Philadelphia, June 15, 1798.

"To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasion to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.
